DRIVING PRIVILEGE REINSTATEMENT PROGRAM

WHAT DOES THE DRIVING PRIVILEGE REINSTATEMENT (DPR) PROGRAM DO?

The DPR program assists Wayne County residents who have had their driver's license suspended by examining their driving record, determining what steps need to be taken, negotiating payment plans and potential fee reductions with courts inside Wayne County, providing legal representation at court hearings, and potentially providing payment assistance for outstanding fines and costs.

HOW DO I KNOW IF I QUALIFY FOR THE DPR PROGRAM?

Qualified applicants must be residents of Wayne County and must have been living in Wayne County during the COVID-19 Pandemic between 2020 and 2021.

I HAVE ONE OR MORE SUSPENSIONS FROM COURTS OUTSIDE WAYNE COUNTY, CAN DPR HELP ME WITH THOSE?

DPR program staff can advise on how to clear suspensions outside Wayne County; however, it cannot assist with the payment of fines and costs from those suspensions.

DOES THE PROGRAM HAVE ANY OTHER RESTRICTIONS?

Yes. While the DPR program does not limit applicants based on income, it cannot assist with driver's license revocations or suspensions based on drug or alcohol related offenses, unpaid child support, car accidents resulting in injury or death, or outstanding civil monetary judgments.

HOW DOES THE PROCESS WORK?

- Application: Interested individuals must apply at www.WayneLINC.org/DPR.
- Contact: After processing your application, a WayneLINC Career Navigator will reach out to schedule an appointment.
- Appointment: During the appointment, the Career Navigator will assist you in exploring relevant programs and resources based on your situation.
- Driving Record Check: With your approval, DPR staff will request your driving record from the Secretary of State.
- Legal Assessment: An attorney from SEMCA will assess your eligibility based on your driving record and discuss the best path for reinstating your driving privileges.
- Qualification and Plan: If you qualify, the DPR Staff Attorney will meet with you to discuss the plan and its implementation.
